

Fiction Reading Response Activities

Write 3 questions that you would like to ask a character in the story. Why did you choose that character?	List the characters from the story and write 5 adjectives to describe them	List the main events of the story. Make a cartoon strip of these main events.	Write an acrostic poem of the title naming the characters and events	Write a new blurb for the back cover.	Make up 5 questions about your book to test a friend.
Draw a picture of what may happen next. Write a sentence to explain it.	Write a newspaper report of your story from the point of view of a character	Find 10 words that you didn't know before; write them in your book and find dictionary meanings	Write a letter to the main character telling them about what others think/feel about them.	Design a new eye-catching front cover for the story.	Using speech bubbles, draw a conversation between 2 characters from the story.
Draw a picture of your favourite part of the story.	Make a poster to advertise your book using clear layout and illustration.	Find 15 adverbs the author uses in the book and illustrate 5 of them	Make word banks of 'happy' and 'sad' words.	Think of 5 new titles for the book and then describe why you chose them?	Find 3 examples where the author uses interesting sentences. Write the sentences in red and explain why you liked them in blue.
Write a new ending for your story. Draw a picture to go with it.	Find 5 nouns and 5 verbs in your book. Draw a picture to match them.	Choose a character from your story and draw them in a happy situation.	Create a Wanted poster for one of the story characters. Describe them and their crime.	Use a Venn diagram to show the similarities and differences of two characters.	Which characters in the story are you most like? Explain why?