FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Term 3 has begun with an exciting and busy week. All classes have been celebrating NAIDOC week with some wonderful activities. Yesterday was our Damper Bake Off. Congratulations to Room 11 and 12 for their tasty bakes. Today we had our special NAIDOC assembly to share the wonderful things that we have done this week. A big thank you needs to go to Mrs Sambo for organising everything and ensuring things ran smoothly all week.

It was wonderful to see so many parents at Wednesday's Cross Country. Miss Pestell did a wonderful job organising it and Miss Wight was a fantastic announcer. Congratulations go to all of our Champion boys and girls. The Interschool Cross Country will be held next Friday at the Oasis Playing Fields. Children in Years 3-6 who were 1st to 3rd in our Cross Country, will be representing our school. We wish them all the best and know they will participate positively and reflect our Harmony Way.

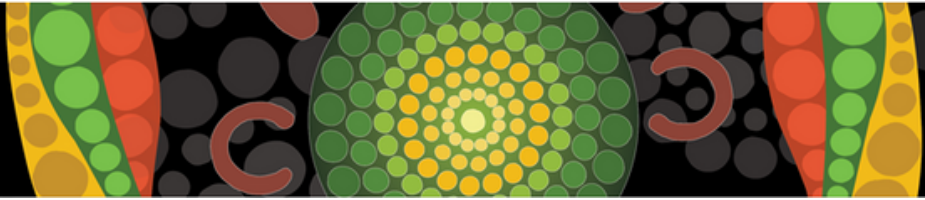

At the end of last term, we said goodbye to Mrs Hall. When we lose teachers, it usually means we need to welcome a new one. This term we welcome Miss Chapman to South Kalgoorlie Primary. Miss Chapman will be teaching Room 8 for the remainder of the year.

Mr Polmear is on leave for two weeks and we are lucky to have Mrs Colleen Sing taking Room 14 while he is away.
